Louing brother:

We haue recd two letters lately from you, for which we thank you, wherin you haue given us an acent of your Condition, & we are Comforted to hear it is better with you than we could expect, considering that diuers reports of sickness in ye Country, & in your person, & by your letter in your fammely, had caused us to fear. Brother, I was moued to write to you before now, both within myself & from mother, but I put her off becaus of the sickness (that was in my family of which through Mercy we have had a small share to what many of our Neighbours haue had,) but especialy becaus of ye dangerous condition yt brother Natll lay in for some time. I being greatly desireous that my letters might be yt messengers or Joy & not of sorrow to you. And now brother, as we haue Reed Comfort from your letter, we hope these lines may be so to you & all our friends & may find you in health & peace; and that our hearts may be drawn forth to thankfulness unto God for all his Mercies.

And now I shall breifly touch on what is omitted in Brother Natll Letter; and first, of ye sickness; Concerning Brother Natll and his you haue an accnt in his Letter. Our eldest has had a long lingering ilness, but is pretty well recreuited, I am but poorly on't my self hauing bin Considerably ill, this 4 weeks, which makes me write with a trembling hand, the sickness has bin uery genous in "our town of which there are four grown persons dead in our village; viz. Jonathan Hathaway, Rose Spooner, Jemima Badcock, & Amos Taber's wife; but people are generaly pon recowery, & it looks like a time of health.

2d Of the season (we haue Indeferent good crops.) We haue had a great drought which lasted from Inglish mowing till about ye Middle of Sept since which we haue had extreordinary groing weather, till within this 4 or 5 weeks.

3d Of an earthquake, which was a week yesterday, about ten att night, which shook both ye Land & water, the Islands & seas, at that degree that seueral doors were shook of ye Latch in our village, & 'tis said that at Nantuket ye harth stones grated one against another, and, that Car, ye boat builder, Run out of his house, got into a boat for fear ye Island should sink. Mother desiered me to acquaint you that she Greatly desires to see you, and so we doo all, My Loue to all our friend(s) farewell your Brother

Milton Delano, once a wealthy man, ex-mayor of Denver, Col., and ex-United States consul to Foo Chow, China, is probably dying at his home in New York. The Fidelity & Casualty Co.'s president, George F. Seward, who knew him when he was a rich and influential man, employed him. He was a friend of Generals Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.

Feb. '94.

Denver, Col., Nov. 23.—M. Delano, Mayor of Denver in 1868 is dying, according to a letter received by Mayor Van Horn; was an Alderman here for a number of years. Under President Grant he was appointed Consul to Foochow China.

New York, March 20.—[Special.]—Mrs. Amelia De Lano, who lives at No. 29 Brooklyn avenue, believes she has fallen heir to a portion of a large estate in France. She recently received a clipping from a Topeka, Kas., paper which states that the Rev. W. E. De Harppart of that city, had just learned, "the American heirs of Chevalier Joseph St. Ledger de Harppart of France were to receive the estate, amounting to 5,000,000 francs." Fourteen heirs were living. Mrs. De Lano also received a clipping from a Denver paper to the effect the De Harppart brothers of that place had fallen heir to part of this estate. Mrs. De Lano says she is a granddaughter of the Chevalier, and the heirs mentioned are great-grandchildren. The Chevalier came to this country and married a daughter of Gen. Thompson of Revolutionary war fame. He afterwards returned taking a son, Louis, with him, and leaving his two other children, Mrs. De Lano's mother and Joseph, here. The Western heirs are the grandchildren of Joseph.

Joseph Robinson De Lano (Began life as a teacher, salary $1. per week, in a summer school. By advice of father he accepted 75 cents per week, as his father argued; his employers might be less critical of his labor if he did not receive "such high wages." Successful in this he followed the vocation for several years, and received the highest pay for such at the time. When a mere lad he carried the United States mails, on horseback, over a part of the first mail route established in his native county. After two or three years as a clerk, he went to Wadhams Mills, starting a general merchandise store, continued many years. Later associated with him Messrs. HON. COLUMBUS DELANO.

The sudden and altogether unexpected death yesterday morning of Hon. Columbus Delano, occasioned the deepest sorrow among all classes of our citizens. Ripe in years and experience, loaded with honors, respected and loved by all who knew him, esteemed throughout the length and breadth of the land, Columbus Delano was gathered to his fathers without an instant's warning. But what need has such a man of time to prepare for death? His life was replete with good deeds. Possessed of some wealth, he generously devoted much of it to the noble cause of education, and gave liberally to the support and propagation of religion. The cry of the poor and needy was heard by him, and every good cause found in him an earnest advocate.

His political services made him famous throughout the land. He was not a self-assertive man, nor was he ambitious in the ordinary sense of that term. But he was a man of brains, of gigantic and well-balanced intellect, and his counsel was valuable.

He loved our people, and he had no object in view, in his last address to them at the Republican county convention, than their good. Well did he say, with unconscious prophecy, that in the result of the election he could have no possible personal interest. Men of all parties and creeds recognize his earnestness and sincerity, and will treasure his memory in their hearts.

Mt. Vernon, Ohio, Saturday Morning, October 24, 1896.

It is with a feeling of the deepest and most sincere sympathy, and a full sense of the loss not only to Mt. Vernon and Knox county, but to the state and even the nation, that the "Republican" today chronicles the death of Hon. Columbus Delano, which occurred at his beautiful suburban home, Lakehome, at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. His death was entirely unexpected, coming without the slightest warning, and was peaceful and calm, as he had always desired it to be, and was in perfect accord with his noble and peaceful life.

Mr. Delano had passed his eighty-seventh birthday, but despite his advanced years was active and vigorous, giving his close attention to his business and agricultural interests, still pursuing his usual vocations, and for the past year had been in better health than for some time previous. Yesterday morning he arose and ate his breakfast at his regular hour, and appeared as well as usual. He intended to drive to Lock on business and waited for the weather to clear up, if possible, before starting; meantime he was talking about some matters with his foreman in the sitting room, when suddenly, after completing a sentence in a perfectly intelligible manner, he threw back his head, gave one or two gasps, and expired almost instantly, at eleven o'clock. Medical aid was hurriedly summoned.

Mr. Delano was a man of national reputation, and although he had practically retired from active political life, his mind was as vigorous and clear as ever, and his great influence was still felt. He took a deep interest in the present campaign, advocating in the strongest manner the success of the Republican ticket, and so firmly did he believe that the success of the Republican party meant the prosperity of the country, that he came out of his political retirement and did active work. At the last Republican county convention he was chosen to preside, which he did in an able manner, his speech on that occasion being regarded as a masterpiece. For Major McKinley he had the warmest regard, and he had, some little time ago, requested that he be allowed the privilege of casting the first vote in Clinton township on the morning of Nov. 3.

The following sketch of the life of Mr. Delano, up to 1875, was written by the late Col. Charles F. Baldwin some ten years ago, at the request of Mr. Delano, and was approved by him. Mr. Baldwin some time before his last sickness left word in this office that in case of Mr. Delano's death, the article should be used, and it is a curious and touching coincidence that both should die the same day.

At eight years of age he removed to Ohio in the care of immediate relatives, who settled in the county of Knox. His boyhood was passed in the lighter avocations of the farm, joined with persistent devotion to study. He pursued his elementary education at such schools as were at that time available, acquiring a common school education and a fair knowledge of the classics. His love of history was all-absorbing, and at the age of eighteen he had perused such standard historical works as were then at his command. With a seriousness becoming his disposition he began thus early to consider how he should make his way through the world, and what pathway would lead him from obscurity to a useful position in life. After due consideration he determined to undertake the study of law, and with that purpose, in 1829 entered the office of Hosmer Curtis, then a noted attorney practicing at Mt. Vernon, Ohio. After three years of close application and study he was admitted to the bar in 1832, and immediately commenced the practice in Mt. Vernon.

His success was immediate. He had the good fortune to be employed as junior counsel in a local suit involving important legal questions and considerable estate. Having been left by an accident to the sole management of the case, he was triumphantly successful, and thus gained a reputation, the immediate effect of which was his election as prosecuting attorney in a county adverse to his politics. He served his full term and was re-elected, but shortly afterward resigned on account of his official duties interfering with his general practice. His constant attention upon the courts for a period of ten years, his unbounded success as an advocate, his thoroughness and integrity as a lawyer, met with ample reward and he was recognized among the foremost in his profession.

Politically, Mr. Delano has ever been opposed to slavery, and the Democratic policy. He sought no office while pursuing his profession, yet he was the exponent of the Whig party in all local contests. Located in a district strongly Democratic, there seemed very little hope for political preferment or promotion. In 1844 he was unanimously nominated by the Whigs for congress, and was elected over his Democratic competitor by a majority of twelve, notwithstanding the Democratic candidate for governor received a majority of over 600 in the same district at the same election. Mr. Delano took his seat in the Twenty-ninth congress in 1845, and did excellent service on the committee on invalid pensions. This was an epoch in congressional history. Contemporaneous with Mr. Polk's administration, it comprised men of great experience and ability. Mr. Delano immediately took rank among the foremost leaders and debaters in those eventful times, and his career was successful and brilliant. His district having been changed, he was not a candidate for re-election, but returned home to close up his business in the courts. In 1848 his name was brought before the Whig convention of Ohio as a candidate for governor lacking but two votes of the nomination. Retiring from his profession, he removed to the city of New York as principal in the banking firm of Delano, Dunlevy & Co., with a branch house at Cincinnati. In 1856 he withdrew from business and returned to Ohio to engage in agriculture. He was a delegate to the Chicago convention in 1860, supporting Mr. Lincoln for the presidency. In 1861 he was appointed commissary general of Ohio, and administered the affairs of that department with marked success. In 1862 his name was brought before the caucus of the Republican legislature for U. S. senator, and he again lacked but two votes of a nomination. In 1863 he was a member of the Ohio legislature. In 1864 he was a delegate to the national convention at Baltimore, and was chairman of the Ohio delegation. He was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress and served as chairman on the committee on claims, and every bill introduced by him was passed into a law. He was re-elected to the Fortieth congress, serving with distinction on the committee on foreign affairs.

On March 5th, 1869, he was appointed by President Grant as commissioner of internal revenue, which position he filled with consummate skill and ability. He reorganized the bureau, brought order out of chaos, and succeeded in increasing the revenues from distilled spirits in one year from $15,000,000 to over $50,000,000, and the tax on snuff and tobacco from $8,000,000 to some $35,000,000. It was during his term as commissioner of internal revenue that Mr. Delano appointed the first colored man to a clerkship under the authority of the United States in any of the government departments. On the 7th of November, 1870, Mr. Delano was appointed by President Grant as secretary of the interior, which position he held until Oct. 1, 1875, when he resigned, and once more returned to his farm in Ohio. Mr. Delano filled the office of secretary of the interior with signal success and ability, and administered the affairs of that department for a longer period than any previous or succeeding secretary.

Upon his return to Mt. Vernon, Mr. Delano resided at "Lakehome," his beautiful suburban residence about a mile south of the city. Here he passed the remainder of his days in the calm and honored repose befitting a man whose biography was interwoven with the history of his country. He devoted the greater portion of his time to stock and sheep raising, his herds being noted as among the finest in the country.

He founded, and for many years was president of the National Wool Growers' association, and as such he was the champion of the wool industries during the recent revisions of the tariff, and to the flock-masters, sheep-breeders and cattle-raisers of the whole country he was of incalculable service, and his name was favorably known throughout the country at large as their champion.

In educational, as well as other public affairs, he took a deep interest, and especially with Kenyon college and its surrounding institutions was he closely identified. For many years he was a trustee of the college and took a great interest in its welfare, and at the time of his death he was chairman of the executive committee of the board of trustees. Delano hall, a part of the Kenyon Military academy, will long remain as a monument to his munificence. In religion he was a lifelong member of the Episcopal church, and in this, as in other matters, he was earnest and zealous, consistent and manly. For many years he has been senior warden of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city, and he attended many of the diocesan and national conventions of that church as a delegate. For many years, up to the time of his death, he was president of the First National bank of this city.

Mr. Delano was one of the oldest non-affiliating Masons in the state, having been a charter member of Clinton chapter, No. 26, R. A. M., and of Clinton commandery, No. 5, K. T., of this city.

His home life was a singularly happy and beautiful one, and its perfectness was often remarked about. Hand in hand, along the journey of life, he passed with his devoted wife in perfect love and content, each relying upon the other. In 1834 he was united in marriage with Miss Leavenworth, a native of Connecticut, but at that time residing with friends in this city; three children were born, Antoinette, who died in infancy; Elizabeth, John Sherman. His aged wife, who survives him, in spite of her recent accident, bears up bravely under her affliction.

The funeral arrangements have not been decided upon yet, but will be made known this afternoon. The probability is that it will be Tuesday afternoon from St. Paul's church.

The following telegram was received at 7 o'clock last evening from Major McKinley in regard to the death of Mr. Delano:

Canton, O., Oct. 23, 1896.

Col. Cooper:—Please convey to the family of the late Columbus Delano my sincere sympathy in their great loss.

WM. McKINLEY.

Simple and Impressive Services Over the Body of the Deceased Statesman—Messages of Condolence.

All that was mortal of the late Hon. Columbus Delano was tenderly consigned to mother earth, yesterday afternoon, by loving hands, surrounded by all the honors and remembrances that fond hearts could pay. The funeral services of the venerated and honorable statesman, who had lived more than the allotted span of man's life, were simple in the extreme, as his life had been, and were in accord with his instructions. Death had not changed a single feature, and the noble face was calm and peaceful and very lifelike, so that those who saw him as he lay in his casket, will ever have a perfect remembrance of him. In a magnificent solid oaken casket, there being not a sign of black about it, Mr. Delano having so requested.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, but previous to that a short service was held at the home for the benefit of Mrs. Delano, who was unable to be present at the church, on account of her recent injuries. This service was conducted by Bishop Leonard, and the simple, solemn and impressive service of the church was performed by the rector, Rev. George F. Smythe, Bishop Leonard and Rev. Dr. H. W. Jones of Gambier.

All of the business houses of the city were closed during the service as a mark of the high respect and esteem in which Mr. Delano was held, and the church was packed to the very doors long before the time by his many friends and admirers. The seats on either side of the center aisle were reserved for the relatives, friends, members of the bar, Kenyon college trustees, faculty and students, theological students and K. M. A. cadets. A detachment of the latter acting as escort, accompanying the remains to the church and forming a passage on either side of the walk during the services, and while the remains were exposed to public view, and also to the cemetery.

The remains were met at the door of the church by the clergy, who preceded them up the aisle, and the casket was deposited in front of the chancel while the solemn services were performed. Afterwards the casket was taken to the walk in front of the church, where it was opened and an opportunity given to the public to take a last lingering look at the honored friend of all, which was taken advantage of by many. The floral offerings on the casket were exquisite and were the gifts of loving friends.

The procession to the cemetery was an enormous one, and was headed by the K. M. A. cadets and Kenyon students on foot, the college faculty in carriages, members of the bar, pall-bearers and hearse, escorted by the K. M. A. detachment. Then followed the relatives and intimate friends, and a long line of the carriages and buggies of friends paying the last sad mark of respect. The remains were interred in the Delano lot in Mound View. James Israel acted as marshal, and the honorary pall-bearers were Hon. H. H. Greer, Judge J. B. Waight, J. S. Ringwalt, Henry L. Curtis, Charles E. Burr of Columbus and F. D. Sturges.

Yesterday morning, Mr. Hague of Columbus, an expert in that line, took a plaster cast of the features of Mr. Delano.

Many messages of respect and sympathy were received from all over the country, among them being the following:

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 24.

Mrs. Columbus Delano:

I have learned with deep regret of the death of your illustrious husband. His life was full of practical usefulness. His influence was always exerted on the side of justice, and when our country was passing through its severest trials he stood side by side with the most unswerving supporters of the Union. Accept my profound sympathy in your irreparable loss. The nation mourns with you.

Mrs. Columbus Delano:

In common with his thousands of admirers I mourn with you the loss of your distinguished husband. Was one of the heroic men of a heroic period. J. B. FORAKER.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 23.

Ben Ames:

I am deeply pained by death of your illustrious grandfather, Hon. Columbus Delano. Be assured of my sincere sympathy.

B. L. McELROY.

Cleveland, Oct. 24.

Mrs. Columbus Delano:

Accept our sincerest sympathy. We have lost a dear friend and noble adviser. I expect to be with you on Tuesday.

BISHOP LEONARD.

Columbus, Oct. 26.

Ben Ames:

Absence from city has prevented communication with you in relation to death of your distinguished grandfather. Ohio has lost a splendid citizen. Please assure Mrs. Delano of my sympathy.

ASA S. BUSHNELL.

Detroit, Oct. 23.

Mrs. Columbus Delano:

May God bless and support you. Shall reach Mt. Vernon tomorrow noon, ready to serve you in any way in my power.

Adopts Suitable Resolutions Regarding the Death of Mr. Delano —Eloquent Tributes.

The Knox County Bar association met in the court room at half-past eight o'clock, Monday morning, to take suitable action regarding the death of the late Hon. Columbus Delano, the nestor of the county bar. The attendance was large, and in the absence of President John Adams, Col. W. C. Cooper was, on motion of H. H. Greer, elected chairman, and W. L. Cary, jr., was elected secretary. On motion of Hon. H. H. Greer, the chairman was directed to appoint a committee of five, of which he should be one, to draft suitable resolutions. The committee appointed was Col. W. C. Cooper, Hon. H. H. Greer, J. D. Critchfield, W. L. McElroy and Hon. W. M. Koons, and while it retired, Hugh Neal was called upon to preside.

The committee reported the following resolutions after a short absence:

The members of the Knox County bar, assembled upon the occasion of the sudden death of the Honorable Columbus Delano, who was for many years our most distinguished leader, desire to express our profound sorrow at this dispensation, our appreciation of his great merit, and have the same placed upon the records of our court, in which he, during his active practice, was the brilliant leader.

Therefore, Resolved, That by the death of Honorable Columbus Delano we have lost the grand old patriarch of our bar, who in his career as an attorney, in the trial of cases, in the examination of witnesses, in the presentation of law and the testimony adduced, in learned and logical argument, in eloquent and moving appeal to judge and jury, had no superior and few equals in our great state.

Columbus Delano was not only a great lawyer, but he was a great statesman, who rendered long, valuable and distinguished services to the nation, both in national congress and cabinet, thereby acquiring great and honorable distinction throughout the entire republic.

He was also a noble christian gentleman, exemplary in every department of life, public and private, in church and in state.

His great qualities were accompanied by such modesty, courtesy and kindness, that he was beloved by all in every rank of society who knew him well.

He was foremost, noblest and most distinguished citizen of our county, which has been more honored by the illustrious character and career of Columbus Delano than by any other incident in its entire history.

Resolved, That we tender the family of the deceased our respectful and profound sympathy.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting be requested to present these resolutions to the court with the request that they may be entered on its minutes.

Resolved, That the same be published in the journals of the city and that a copy thereof be delivered to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we will, as a tribute of respect, attend the funeral of the deceased.

At the regular meeting of the Lincoln-McKinley club, held last evening, the following resolutions regarding the death of Hon. Columbus Delano were unanimously adopted:

The Nation lost one of its brightest lights, its most rugged minds, its most useful citizens, its most eminent statesmen, and this club its greatest and best-beloved member, when, on the 23d of October, 1896, Hon. Columbus Delano, like the prophet of old, walked with God, and was not, for God took him.

Columbus Delano was a man whose very name was a tower of strength. He advocated nothing for policy's sake, but stood always for the right—as he saw the right—because it was the right.

He was one of the men who gave to this nation the services of that great immortal whose name this club bears, Abraham Lincoln. Never did he falter in the pursuit of duty, never did he fail, in the most trying times, to rise to whatever height the occasion demanded. The honors, public and private, which came to him, came because he merited them, and every honor was worthily and modestly borne. His every act proclaimed him, in every sense of the word, a man.

Feeling thus, feeling more than our words can express, we, the members of the Lincoln-McKinley club, in regular session assembled, do Resolve: That in the death of Columbus Delano each member of this club, every Republican in this land, every patriot, no matter what his politics, has sustained a loss.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved wife of 62 years, now confined to her home by a serious accident, and to the other relatives of the deceased, our most sincere sympathy and condolences.

Resolved, That we thank the citizens of Mt. Vernon for the honor done our noble dead in closing their places of business during the funeral.

Resolved, That we emulate the sturdy Republicanism and honesty of Columbus Delano, and of his illustrious friend, the martyred Lincoln.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, that they be presented to the various city papers for publication, and that they be entered on the journal of this club.

Columbus Delano.—His father died when he was about six, and thereupon he was committed to the care of his uncle, Luther Bateman, with whom he removed to Mt. Vernon Ohio in 1817. He was but a lad of eight when he came to the locality, which ever afterward continued to be his home, and to whose development and substantial upbuilding he contributed in so large a measure. Here was his home for more than half a century, and these years were composed of ceaseless toil and of distinguished honors. Very early in life left to his own resources, he rose to the exigencies of the situation with that same self-reliance and self-respect which have been characteristic of his entire career. He made good use of such educational facilities as were available. Before attaining his majority he had given definition to the course he should pursue in life, having determined to adopt the profession of law and bending every energy toward preparing himself for its practice. In the meanwhile he was compelled to find such occupation as would enable him to meet current expenses, so that his leisure moments were few. In 1830 he became a student in the law office of Hosmer Curtis of Mt. Vernon, and under his effective guidance continued until 1831, when he realized his ambition in being admitted to the bar. He became eminent as an advocate and criminal lawyer and no less so as a criminal prosecutor, for soon after he was admitted to the bar he became by popular election the prosecuting attorney for Knox county. This became an elective office by act of the legislature in 1832, and Mr. Delano, although a Whig, or rather a "National Republican," was elected to that office in a county then decidedly and strongly Democratic, which shows that he was then very popular with both parties.

Throughout his entire career Mr. Delano showed himself to be of stern integrity and honesty of purpose, despising all unworthy or questionable means of securing success in any undertaking or for any purpose, or of promoting his own advancement in any direction, whether political or otherwise.

After a three years' service as attorney of Knox he was elected, as his own successor, he resigned the position shortly after entering his second term, finding that his increasing and important civil practise placed exacting demands on his attention. His devotion to his profession & uniform success as an advocate soon placed him in the foremost position of the Ohio bar, then justly distinguished for the great ability of its personnel. It was but to be expected that such a man would be uncompromising to human slavery, and one who would bring to bear the full force of his strong individuality when this institution threatened the integrity of the nation. In the troubles of ante-bellum days he was a stalwart exponent of the views of the Whig party, and while seeking no official preferment, his influence was thrown actively into supporting the principles and policies of this party. As has been said in this connection, "Surrounded by a cordon of Democratic constituencies in the immediate vicinity of his congressional district, there seemed but little hope for his popular preferment." However in the year 1844, without solicitation on his part, Mr. Delano was placed in nomination as the Whig candidate for Congress. The contest was a vigorous one, and the personal strength and popularity of our subject was most clearly shown forth in the result of the election, since he secured a majority of twelve votes over the Hon. Caleb J. McNulty, a democratic politician of marked popularity and extensive resources and power. The emphatic endorsement thus accorded Mr. Delano is evinced by no one fact more perfectly than in that at the election the democratic candidate for Gov. carried the district by 600 majority. The original Whig candidate for these counties of Knox, Licking and Franklin, was Hon. Samuel White, of Licking, who had effected the canvass, of a portion of the district when a sudden illness finally terminated in his death. The death of Mr. White demanded a careful deliberation on the part of the leaders of the Whig forces in the district, since the emergency was somewhat difficult to meet. Mr. Delano was complimented as being finally selected as the most eligible man in the district to conduct the campaign against Col. McNulty. Each of the opposed candidates felt that he had a foeman worthy of his steel, and the canvass was a most spirited one and the issue one of doubt, as is manifest in the fact that the election was so close that the result was not known until returns had been received from the last township in the district when the victory was found to be Mr. Delano's who thus took his seat as a member of the 29th congress. He served as a member of the committee on invalid pensions. In the Whig convention of 1846 Mr. Delano was a candidate for Governor of Ohio, but failed of nomination by 2 votes, his successful competitor for this position being Mr. Ford. In 1850 Mr. Delano retired from the active practice of law, and removed to the city of New York, where he became a member of the banking firm of Delano, Dunlevy and Co., and where he was concerned in the conducting of a very successful business for the term of 5 years, after which he returned to his old and cherished home at Mt. Vernon, and there turned his attention to extensive agricultural operations and to other business interests. The interest which Mr. Delano had maintained in matters political had shown no signs of waning, and he was very naturally soon brought into prominence. His political adherency had continued with the Republican party, the normal successor of the Whigs, and in 1860 he was a delegate to the National convention, in Chicago, which nominated Abraham Lincoln for the presidency; in whose behalf he rendered valiant service, "seconding his nomination" in a speech alive with patriotic utterances and earnest endorsement of "the man who could split rails and maul Democrats." He took an active part in the ensuing campaign. In 1861 at the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, a recognition of Mr. Delano's stalwart patriotism and marked executive ability was accorded in his appointment as Commissary General of Ohio, in which office he served, with signal efficiency, until the time when the general government assumed the subsistence of the State troops. In the succeeding year he beame a candidate in convention for the U. S. Senate, and on one ballot lacked only 2 votes of the nomination. In 1863 official preferment again came to Mr. Delano in his election to the House of Representatives in the Ohio Legislature, in which body he became prominent thro' his well directed efforts in shaping the important legislation of the State during the last 2 years of the war, having been chairman of the committee which determined upon the question relative to the voting of the soldiers in the field.

Mr. Delano was chairman of the Ohio delegation in the national republican convention held at Baltimore in 1864, and here again it was his to render a zealous support to President Lincoln, for whose renomination he labored earnestly. Within the same year he was elected a member of the 39th Congress, in which he served as Chairman of the committee on claims. He was nominated as his own successor in the 40th congress but refused to again become a candidate from his district. Of his work in Congress we can not do better than to incorporate a summing up which has hitherto been made: "As a legislator he was opposed to free trade, and advocated a protective tariff. He was strongly opposed to the extravagant claims of railroad companies for land grants and government subsidies. His views were regarded as most important on questions of tariff, of taxes and of public debt. To his speech of July 24, 1866, was given the credit of carrying the tariff bill of that session against what had been considered the sense of the house."

When Gen. Grant became president of the U. S. he conferred upon him the appointment as "commissioner of Internal Revenue" and in his administration of the affairs of this office he showed the same fidelity that had ever been typical of his services in positions of public trust. It demanded fortitude and inflexibility of principle to bring about the needed reforms in this department of the public service, and it will stand to the perpetual credit of Mr. Delano that he effected a thorough reorganization of the department and corrected many abuses which had been held as privileges by certain powerful organizations which preyed upon the nation. In 1870, there came to Mr. Delano a fitting crown for his zealous endeavors in the service of his country, he became a member of the cabinet of President Grant, succeeding Gov. J. D. Cox as "Secretary of the Interior." This conspicuous and important office he filled with signal ability for a term of 5 years when he tendered his resignation, in order to devote his attention to private pursuits, doubtless feeling that he was entitled to a respite from public service after so many years. His resignation was accepted by the President whose satisfaction with the manner in which Mr. Delano had performed his duties was made evident and with manifestations of regret in view of his desire to retire from public life.

Mr. Delano returned to the place which for more than 70 years he delighted to call his home. "Lakehome," is one of the finest in the entire State, and to its cultivation and improvement he devoted his attention with that energy which was so characteristic. A more ideal home than this can scarcely be imagined, and the demense with its 15 acres of lawn, noble trees, winding drives and floral beds, cannot fail to appeal to the sentiment of any beholder, the great area of 500 acres, of well tilled fields & far stretching meadows add to the pastoral charms of "Lakehome," while the improvements and modern accessories are of such an extent and character to make the place a veritable model farm. He did much to advance the agricultural and stock raising interests of the locality, and in his venerable age he did not abate his concern.

Temperate and the friend of temperance in all things, the supporter of education and good morals, schools, colleges and churches always found in him an advocate. A zealous Churchman, he was for many years one of the wardens of St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church in Mt. Vernon, being such at the time of his demise, and to his beneficence the present prosperity of the parish is in a large measure due. He also maintained a lively interest in the well known church institution, Kenyon College, at Gambier, O., and was for many years a member of its board of Trustees. To this school he gave a bequest in a fund for the endowment of the Grammar department and the institution conferred upon him the honorary degree of LL.D. He also provided for the erection of "Delano Hall."

After retiring from public life Mr. Delano did not abate his interest in the affairs of the day, but kept closely in touch with all questions touching the prosperity of the nation. His advice was sought in regard to the provisions of the "McKinley tariff bill," and incidentally he devoted much time and labor to the work "of protection."

(To speak of self is the hardest task the Compiler has undertaken I will attempt to give some of the events which have occurred during an uneventful life

My youthful days were spent on the farm in summer and district school in winter Instruction at that early period consisted of reading writing & cyphering, with a sprinkle of geography & grammar thrown in. 1849 I was apprenticed to tailoring and for several years followed Like other Delanos I was possessed of a roving disposition 1856 found me in Chicago and for variety shipped before the mast on board Schooner "Cascade" of Cleveland O. to Oswego N Y with wheat. The novelty wore off when seasick, after a voyage of 12 days arrived at our destination & paid off

In my younger days I desired to become a soldier, so went to Buffalo June 20-1856. The next morning was at recruiting office of Uncle Sam's, enlisted for 5 yrs. donning the blue June 21-1856. I was sent to Newport Barracks Ky drilled and then to Ft Meyers Fla some 28 miles above the mouth of Calosahatchee River

Assigned to Capt Randolph B Marcys Co. "D" 5th U S Inf Gustavus Loomis Col. Jan 1857 active opperations began against Seminole Indians under leadership of Chief Billy Bowlegs. The Regt continued to scout during spring & summer until June 1857, engaged in several skirmishes. One in particular which occured in Billy Bowlegs garden Mar 5-1857 in which the writer acted, our loss was 2 k. & 7 wounded. June 1857 5th U S Inf was ordered to Ft Leavenworth Kan for the Utah Expedition leaving Ft Meyers behind, crossing the Gulf to the mouth of the Mississippi River, up that and the Missouri to Leavenworth July 20-1857 On the 23d the long and tiresome march of 1250 miles commenced, after review before Brig Gen W S Harney. The old California trail was followed across the great American desert to Ft Kearney, Ft Laramie and on to Bridgers fort 150 miles fr. Salt Lake City, arived Nov 24-1857 after enduring many hardships; toiling through hot sands of the desert during July Aug & Sept and snows of the Rocky mountains of Oct & Nov. The army under Brig Genl Albert S Johnson consisted of 5th & 10th Inf 2d Regt of Dragoons & Battery B 4th Artil, lay at Ft Bridgers until June 1858 suffering with cold & hunger, on half rations In June the march was resumed towards Salt Lake; arrived the latter part of month, passed through and encamped temporarily in the valley some 10 miles west city Permanent camp established some 55 miles s of Salt Lake C. & west of Utah lake in Cedar Valley, named Camp Floyd after Sec of War. Adobe houses were erected My Regt remained until July 1860 when it received orders to march across the mountains to New Mexico. Accomplished under Maj E R S Canby 10th Inf.

Passed through Santa Fé, and Albuquerque arrived at Ocho del Oso or Bear Springs 150 miles W. of Albu. heart of the Navajos Indian nation then hostile to the Gov

The Indians attacked our camp and herds within a few days after arrival resulted in a running fight of four miles They wounded several of our men and ran off 75 mules. Indian loss 2 k. & 15 wounded. Scouting & skirmishing continued during winter until May 1861 when they sued for peace

June 21-1861—My five years service in Co D 5th Regt expired and prepared to start for Ind After delay transportation was secured in one of Ambrose Armiejo trains of Alberquerque N M. then going to Kansas City for goods. Arrived home Shelby Co Aug 23-1861. The War had begun, recruiting for the Army was in order. I began an active canvass of my neighborhood, secured some 30 odd to my paper, joined in with two other men of the Co & marched to Camp Morton Indianapolis Sept 24-1861. James E McGuier Capt. John M Flynn 1st Lt & Joel A Delano 2d Lt Co F, was attached to 51st Regt Ind Vol Inf under Col Abel D Straight Lt Col Benj Spooner & Maj. W'm Colescott.

Dec 14th the Regt. started to the front, arriving at Louisville Ky thence to Bardstown Ky. and Nashville was Brigaded with other Regt. The latter part of Mar 1862 the Army under Genl Buell marched to Pittsburg landing arriving 7th April last day battle of Shiloh.

Regt marched to Tuscumbia & Decatur Ala. thence to Steveson & Bridgeport Ala. & to Louisville after Genl Bragg & rebel Army. Engaged him at Perryville Oct 8 1862 continued to follow him towards Cumberland Gap after this army marched to Nashville where we lay till near the last of Dec when Army of the Cumberland marched upon Bragg at Murfreesboro, engagement Dec 30 & 31 1862 & Jan 1 & 2 1863 At this battle I was detailed to command Co I. In latter part of Apr 1863 my Col succeeded in obtaining a separate command of 4 Regts on an expedition or raid through northern Ala & Geo to destroy Railroads & bridges in rear of Genl Bragg. The four; 51st 73d Ind., 3d O & 80th Ill left Nashville passed down the Cumberland & Ohio River to Paducah Ky. up Tennesse to Hamburg, and mounted started on the raid. Genl Forest of the rebel Cav hearing of our contemplated raid succeeded in getting in our rear and pressing close to rear guard we were compelled to halt, form line of battle, and on Apr 29-1863 the battle of Days Gap Ala was fought, the enemy repulsed, a section of his Artillery captured & destroyed, for four days had a running fight between Col Straight Union forces & Genl Forest Confed. near Rome Ga where we surrendered May 3-1863. Prisoner of War.—Little did I think, when surrender was made that I should be held for 22 months in the vile prison pens of the south such as Libby in Richmond Va. Macon Ga. Charleston & Columbia S. C. but such was the case

I was paroled and passed through the line Mar 1-1865 near Wilmington N C. thence to Anapolis Md where a good square meal in Gods country was obtained and relished. Thirty days furlough to visit home and friends was given me which was enjoyed, after which I was ordered to re-join my Co & Regt at Nashville to which I reported May following. The Regt with others was ordered to Texas and Aug 1865 we reached our destination at San Antonio where I was mustered out of the service Dec 14-1865

Sept 24-1861 as 2d Lt. promoted 1st Lt Oct 25-1862. promoted Capt Co F 51st Ind Vols Dec 15th 1864, promoted Major of 51st Ind Vet Vol Inf Oct 1st 1865 all given under the hand of Oliver P Morton Gov of Ind

Upon the organization of Post 291 Dpt of Mich Jan 1885 was elected its first Commander, and held office (after interval of 2 years) for 7 years in succession & Adjt of the Post for 3 years. With no intention on my part towards compiling a genealogy of the Delano family I commenced an enquiry in reference to my own immediate branch only, but soon found myself deeply involved, this occurred Feb 1889. The work became very fascinating as I continued and if I have accomplished anything in this labor of love to meet your approbation I feel fully compensated in my long drawn out task. Only asking you to overlook shortcomings and be charitably inclined; I bid you adieu—Joel Andrew Delano)

James Smith Delano, d Washington D. C. Apr 14-1887.

Came to Ill when a boy of eight. First in Malden, near Princeton, where his father opened a store.

Children were educated at Knox Coll., James grad 1854. Till 1862 identified with interests of Galesburg. Through influence of his father's old Princeton friend, Owen Lovejoy, he was appointed to a position in the Treasury Dept Washington. Here, with a fidelity and ability never questioned, he served the gov for nearly twenty-four years, till change in administration displaced him. Commencing with a low grade clerkship, rose till he held responsible position of Deputy Second Comptroller.

"What Delano says," was received by all, from the Secretary down, as final concerning any point coming up in his bureau.

Loring Lewis De Lano,

L. L. De Lano, Lawyer, Atlantic, Iowa.

January 25, 1897.

Now as to my biography. (My education consisted of the common school and a select school, in Washington County, O. I taught one term in that district when nineteen. March, 1866, I left Ohio for Iowa, and worked on a farm near Indianola, Warren County, during the summer of 1866. In the fall I read law with Maxwell & Bryan, of Indianola, and taught a term of school. Continued my studies until March, 1868, when I was admitted to the bar. In Oct., 1868, I moved to Lewis, Cass County, I., having previously formed a partnership with R. G. Phelps in law, there until spring of 1870, when I moved to Atlantic, soon to become the county seat. I have been County Attorney, City Attorney, Mem of the City Council, and for nine years a member of the Board of Education, seven as President.) m 1st Indianola Iowa Oct 1-1868 Martha Adaline, dau of Zebulon H. & Mary (Worth) Hockett, b Indianola Aug 28-1848, d Atlantic Nov 15-1887, m. 2d Atlantic Mar 5-1890 Luella, dau of John A & Susan E. St Geo's ch. ed. Gospel Messenger 1872 ed. Ch. Eclectic for clergy of High Ch. au. "Adulescentiae Folia"—reminiscences of his youth: "known as part of the "Military Tract," surveyed by Simon De Witt, and assigned to soldiers of the Revolution and their heirs, which accounts for the remarkable military spirit of those early days, long before the civil war. We had "venerable men," survivors of the Revolution, to grace our Fourth of July celebrations, and we had our brass six pounders, captured at Yorktown, to thunder our defiance of all foreign foes, and we had drum majors who fired our boyish enthusiasm as completely as did our fathers and grandfathers in the two wars with Great Britain, then not so long past. As a child we used to see as many as six hundred cavalry charge at full gallop across a forty acre field discharging their great horse pistols like a feu de joie, wheeling and galloping in separate squadrons to the place of return, looking most formidable in their bearskin caps, with a white red tipped feather, grey short coats tightly buttoned, holsters and steel scabbarded swords rattling at their sides. The very farm horses not less than their owners, seemed to snuff up war, or the memories of glorious war on "General Training Day." Then there were the "Light Infantry" in still greater numbers, white trousers, blue coats, white belts and buttons, straight hats with silver colored shields, eagle and white feather, carrying the regulation musket (flint lock) and bayonet attached. These were the rely-on-able troops. Then there were the Riflemen in Robinhood green and semi-Indian fringes of costume, without bayonets and with the green feather red-tipped. The major generals, brigadiers and colonels of those days were no dilettantes, grave men, earnest men.") m. 1st Geneva N Y Apr 6-1846 Martha, dau Seth & Lucy (Mix) Field, b do Mar 28-1823 d Utica Mar 9-1863 m 2d Richfield Springs June 10-1864 Elizabeth Campbell, dau Elisha & Wealthy Eliza (Cleland) Benedict, b Columbia N Y. Schofield's Staff 1 Dec 1889 Resigned 1893 to practise law. Appointed by Mayor Strong 13 Feb 1895 a Police Commissioner of N. Y. Treas. of Board 6 May 1896 to 1 Jan '98—the other Comnr's. being Gen. Fred. D Grant & Gov. & Col. Roosevelt—Was unanimously elect. Major "Squadron A" N. G. '98 "the crack cavalry of N. Y." Later at Union club was presented by Gen. Fitzgerald & staff with a gold mounted sabre—He having been Eng. officer on do.—In Apr. '98 (Spanish War) he rec'd leave of absence to act on staff of Gen. Wilson as Chief Quartermaster 6th Army Corps, rank L't. Col. Vols. Camp Thomas Chickamauga Ga.

"Having resigned my commission in the United States volunteers, I hereby resume my command of the squadron, to take effect from August 16, '98.

"The commanding officer feels confident that every member of the squadron will be glad to join heartily in a welcome to be given Troop A upon its return from Porto Rico. On account of uncertainty as to the time and place of its arrival, the details of the ceremonies cannot now be announced, but they will consist of the formation of the squadron to escort the troop through the city to the armory, where a reception to the troop by the members of the squadron and their friends will be held.

"A. D. ANDREWS, Major.

"L. B. Gawtry, Serg't. Major & Acting Adj."

"The next Adjutant-General will be no tin soldier, but a West Pointer who has seen actual service. Col. Roosevelt has selected Major Andrews because he knows him personally to be fully qualified for this important position, more important even in the future than in the past. Politics has played no part in this appointment. He ought to be a good enough Republican by this time, having voted for McKinley 1896, for Seth Low 1897 and for the Republican State ticket and a Congressman 1898. It is a purely military appointment, personal to the Gov., and was made, we understand, without protest from any quarter. Major Andrews was the choice of the officers of the National Guard, as well as of the Gov.-elect, and his selection is a happy augury for the future of the Guardsmen organizations.—Mail & Express."

(" My Dear Anna

Still as when I wrote you last on the 14th of May at the mouth of the river De-la-Plata. . . I was extreordinary well received by His Excellency the Supreme Director who was at Valparaiso when I arrived.

I had the honor to dine with him twice at Valparaiso, and once at a ball with him and I do believe him to be the best man in the world. I came to this city to settle with the government and expect to receive an appointment as Commissioner or Port Admiral at Valparaiso which will be worth about $6,000 per year. At present my pay is $2,619 per year and find myself with some privlages, if I even stop on shore I tendred my resignation which would not be accepted. They tell me I must not leave the service, but send for my family . . . I want much to see you, I hope before twelve months expires, which seemes very long, but when you arrive here I hope you will be happier than ever you was, praise God, but you will have to turn Catholic. Adeu Dear Annie, shall write again in a few days. Paul Delano."

(Written upon arrival, or soon after fr Santiago Chile to wife at Fairhaven fr. Miss N P Delano of New Bedford also that following)

Tomi, 8th Sept 1840

" Nathl Delano of Fair Haven

Dear Nephew. I have before me your letter of 19th April this year, come by a whaler as a few continue to arrive. I was extremely happy to hear from you, but sorry your dear Mother was so feble, but she is getting old, I believe she is six years older than I am, I have passed 65 since June. That would make her 71, but I am not sure, but I find myself getting old and failing fast, especialy since my last ill turn which lasted me upwards of a year. I am not right yet, I am so feble I can hardly walk, but I ride and go in a boat about once a month to Talcuhuano about ten miles and I would sooner stay at home than go when I do go. The trouble of getting into a boat and out does away with all the pleasure as we have a bad beach for going off or on as the water is shoal and you have to be carried on mens shoulders and liable to a ducking

Your Aunt Ann is also a getting old and feble but much smarter than I am, although she is about one year older than I am, but she has a very troubelsome cough which she has had ever since our last earthquake in 1835, but I hope it will not shorten her days as she keeps about with it. It is what is called a habitual cough from the stomach, not from the lungs, but at any rate we have arrived to years that we may reasonably expect to become feble and sickly and shortly die

I am doing nothing, the government gives me half pay, which according to law, they must do as long as I live which supports very comfortably, and if my wife outlives me she will get 45 per month all the days of her life after me that it is not so bad thank God for all his blessings which is more than I deserve.

Our daughter Mary Ann has been a long time unwell, since Anna Maria was born has had none since, and Anna Maria is to be married on the 21 Dec if she lives which will be her birthday. She is a fine girl, she is to be married to an American Doctor established in Valparaiso and is thought a great deal of in his proffession. Paul, owns a flour mill, three run of burrs, and a beautiful mill she is, cast iron from America, and William is in company with Mr Liliwalch Mary Ann's husband in the old establishment at Tomi and doing well. They also own the old Stanton of Fairhaven, good ship, and is out whaling, and they also own two briggs, the Ovally and the Urn that was, and William is going to sea, supercargo of her with a load of Chili flour to New Zeeland, gone about three months, and we are living in Williams house where we have been living this year and a half. I have an idea of establishing the long talked of salt works if I can gain a little strength, it is now the spring of the year in our hemisphere and the evaparation is immence here. I tried the experiment here in 1834-5 and found the rain fell 71½ inches, and the evaparation 60 inches, (say five feet) the year in this—shows the evaparation is great and a proof of it farther is that where the tides flows over the low grounds at spring tides it will frequently leave the salt as thick as window glass, and our poor old friend Joshua Hitch sent me out the plan of the works mill &c. I shall try it at any rate

In the information you sent me in 1837 or 1838 neither did Joshua ever tell me how much water it will take to a bushel of salt, or how long it would be evaporating, however I will endeavor to find out by experience and will let you know from time to time how I get along, and I hope you will continue to write me every opportunity how the folks all are.

Give my respects to all friends, and my wife joins me in love to your dear Mother, and all the family and believe me while I remain Dear Nephew Yours Truly Uncle Paul Dont forget to remember me to my worthy friends Jabez Delano, and Wing Russell and families. Post mark. Ship 6. Mr. Nathaniel Delano Fairhaven) (Paul D'o commenced life on the sea while in his teens, in a brief period gained command of a ship. About 1803 he sold his house to Jabez Delano, my father, and went to New York. Was master of trans-Atlantic freighters He loaded with cotton at Savannah for Liverpool, 1811. A few days after sailing, yellow fever broke out and all died, save the Capt, mate & cabin boy. This I have from C. R. Goodman, of Fall River, whose father Christian, was of the crew. The ship was brought safely into port by the three survivors.

He was passionately fond of fishing and fowling, owned one of that celebrated class, known as the "Vineyard Sail-boat;" so attached was he to his boat, that he took it to New York, and in excursions, I remember 1816 one case in which he came here in his boat. I heard him narrate the adventures of this boat-voyage, they had a rough time, and ran some risk. During war of 1812 he located on a farm in the Jerseys, and took his boat with him, although his farm had not a pool of water sufficient to float her. He would have her shoved up near the windows of his house, both sails set, with his little boys get in and show them the tactics of reefing, sailing etc

1818 left New York and went to South Amer here his genius gained for him marked notoriety; he invented a coast wise mode of telegraphy, also a moveable wharf which when Northers came could be hauled up. 1820 I visited Talcuhaua, & called at his residence, saw wife and children. He having gone to Guaquil in charge of a 64 gun ship to have her hove out and repaired, there being no port nearer for such. On return he was appointed port-admiral, an office more in accordance with his advanced age. It is conclusive that a man of his habits of life and experience was quite out of place as a naval commander; he had an opportunity of becoming wealthy, but never was, genial nature with unchanged interest in fellow country-men, invariably the case when the poor ones came to him, they came to a father; if they died they were buried at his expense. When calls upon him exceeded his means he privately suffered that others might find relief. 1830 I was around Cape Horn, in the ship "Oregon." Not visiting Talcuhaua as intended, I wrote to Capt D'o and I received his answer; he wrote just after the earth-quake which distroyed his house; he narrates the event, and his own efforts in climbing the mountain just as the return wave swept away their house, the closing lines are strictly characteristic "I have lost every-thing I possess on earth, and now I am ready for the first fashion," Paul D'o." In one of his visits to Fairhaven, at our house, he sent me, then ten, to Mr Joshua D'o, to borrow his fowling peice; the message I bore: "Tell him I can't eat, drink, sleep or smoke, until I have a gunning scrape"—The next day he started for Rocky-point, east of Fort Phoenix, the wind was S. E. moderately strong with light rain, he seemed to think nothing of this but it was imperative the gun should be dry; so he strapped a knap-sack shaped piece of ship canvas around his waist, in the fold of which the lock of the gun was placed, & took position at extreme edge of point of rocks, next the tidal wave; & patiently sat, cramped & waiting the transit of the fowl, if one came near enough he was very sure to fetch him on the wing; he'd bring the gun up behind the fowl, and move it forward faster than it was flying; the instant he saw feathers he pulled; the result was generally fatal. He never fired until a fowl had passed for feathers offered less resistance to the shot, & the slanting direction was more effectual being toward and into the vitals. At 11 o'clock I was sent home with what I could carry, with instructions to bring him a lunch. 1 P.M. I was back, he had added nothing. When the fowl returned from their days feeding up river, the sport revived to some extent, result: one 9 lb. loon, 2 old squams, 3 whistlers & 7 shelldrakes.

CIRCULAR

New York, Nov.-Dec.,1898, & Jan.-Feb., 1899.

The purpose of this letter is to inform those interested that our Delano Genealogy is ready to be sent for, as explained. It covers 800 years of family history and 1,400 years of our Royal descent from Guelph Prince of the Scyrri (also ancestor to the Queen of England and other Reigning houses), with Royal charts from Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, and hundreds of Emperors, Kings, Princes, Dukes, Comtes, Knights of the Golden Fleece, the Garter, etc. It contains photographs, coat-armors, maps, charts, views of buildings, reproductions of paintings, etc. Hundreds of allied families—their coats-of-arms, origin, etc. The house of Delano de Lannoy is intermarried with the noblest families of Holland, Germany, France, Italy, and New England. Among which are the old Puritan, Huguenot, and Knickerbocker families. And is also a list of the descendants of Franchimont, Lannoy, Delanoy and Delano. 1. Jean De La Noy (to Eng., time of Eliz.) 2. Philippe De La Noye (to Plymouth, 1621). 3. Abraham and Peter De La Noy (fr. Holl. to New Amsterdam). 4. Felix de Lannoy (fr. Belgium, 1850). The rest showing the intimate and active part this great European family has performed in history—from Jean de Franchimont, who had a following of 3,000 knights retainers and men-at-arms; Hue de Lannoy, Governor of Holland; Charles de Lannoy, Viceroy of Naples, who captured the King of France; Marie de Lannoy (Mother of Philippe), patron of the Mayflower Pilgrims and the Puritans of Leiden; General Joseph G. Swift, first graduate of West Point, 1802; Hon. Columbus Delano, Secretary of the Interior; and Ulysses Simpson Grant. All these of our blood may be read of therein. The amount asked for is $5.00. The edition is strictly limited to some 400 copies. Kindly send your subscription by Registered Letter, Check or Post Office Money Order. All such to be sent to Mr. Thomas E. Delano, 115 Fulton Street, Box 2996, New York, N. Y., (acting as Treasurer).

GENERAL INDEX

[Compiled by Mrs. Mortimer Delano.]

Explanation : All D'o & L'y names & surnames contained in the gen. are found thus: only the first name is given (no middle or additional names, as John stands for all the John D'os John A. etc. is under John on such pages as shown in the index) Other fams. surnames only appear as the different forenames can be found on the pages under the surname. Surnames when similar or same origin appear under most common spelling: as Browne under Brown etc, variations found by looking at each page noted — de, von & van, are left out of index as they are not parts of a surname but sign of gentle birth only—Some confusion is caused in a few cases by ch. of 1st 2d & 3d marriages being numbered in pairs instead of 1 to last born etc, an error not entirely corrected Also mistakes in spelling bap't. & sur-names appear & in dates of birth m. etc every effort was made to correct all, but in spite of care some remain.

S. Burbank Plymouth Mass. copy. '91) (" De Rasieres, who visited Plymouth soon after its settlement, thus describes the appearance of the place: " New Plymouth lies on the slope of a hill stretching east towards the sea coast, with a broad street about a cannon shot of eight hundred (yards) long leading down the hill, with a (street) crossing in the middle northwards to the rivulet and southwards to the land. The houses are constructed of hewn planks with gardens also enclosed behind, and the sides with hewn planks, so that their houses and court yards are arranged in very good order, with a stockade against a sudden attack, and at the ends of the street there are three wooden gates. In the centre on the cross street stands the Governor's house, before which is a square enclosure upon which four patereros (steen stucken) are mounted so as to flank along the streets. Upon the hill they have a large square house with a flat roof made of thick sawn planks stayed with oak beams, upon the top of which they have six cannons, which shoot iron balls of four and five pounds and command the surrounding country. The lower part they use for their church, where they preach on Sundays and the usual holidays. They assemble by beat of drum each with his musket or firelock, in front of the captain's door; they have their cloaks on and place themselves in order three abreast, and are led by a sergeant without beat of drum. Behind comes the Governor in a long robe; beside him on the right hand comes the preacher with his cloak on, and on the left hand the cap[illegible] with his side arms and cloak on and with a small cane in his hand, and so they march in good order and each sets his arms down near him.")
